27-28 Indiana Guitar Festival and Competition

IU Jacobs School of Music, Bloomington, IN

It is the only guitar festival and competition in Indiana and only the second guitar festival in the Midwest. "To commemorate the 20th anniversary of the guitar department at the Jacobs School of Music, we decided to organize a festival and competition that will enhance our activities -- and, at the same time, offer the opportunity for young, talented guitarists to enjoy our ideal halls for the guitar, Ford-Crawford and Auer," said Ernest Bitetti, chair of the department. "We welcome all participants with the sureness of an unforgettable weekend." William Yelverton, director of guitar studies at Middle Tennessee State University, will be a guest performer and one of the jurors. In addition to the competition and guest performance, the festival will feature three Jacobs School guitar students in concert. All events are free and open to the public. For more information, visit <http://music.indiana.edu/departments/guitar>.

INteract Art Group

Hello Artists and Art Supporters,

In January, the Jasper Arts Center hosted the first INteract meeting since June 2009. Thanks to those who came for the meeting and provided their input and opinions toward the direction of the group. It was excellent to meet with artists who are committed to a regional forum, where artists can share their work, build relationships and gain inspiration.

The next INteract meeting will be held on February 16, 2010 at 6:00pm in the Krempp Gallery at the Jasper Arts Center. Artists are invited to bring their newest work or big ideas for sharing. At approximately 6:30 we will hear an educational session from Bonita Embry Coots of the Community Foundation of Crawford County. Bonita will speak to attendees about Building Budgets for Non-Profits and Arts Organizations. All individuals are welcome to attend. Please, Spread the Word!

It has been excellent to hear from artists throughout the region over the past month. Please continue to send me your ideas for workshops, updates on your projects or organization's events!

Grants for Music Education Programs

Deadline: February 5, 2010. The Muzak Heart & Soul Foundation, a nonprofit public charity established by Muzak LLC, works to redefine and expand the scope of music education. The foundation's Music Matters Grants for 2010 program will focus on educational reform in school music programs and independent music programs across the United States. Music education—vocal or instrumental—must be the key component of any music program requesting funds. Applications will be accepted from public school programs (qualifying for Title I federal funding and serving a minimum of 70 percent low-income students) and nonprofit 501(c)(3) programs directly funding music education (serving students regardless of their ability to pay). Applicant schools and programs must already employ a music educator(s) and have an existing music program in place.
